The ANG Noncommissioned Officer Academy Graduate Association has established the administration of the Master Sergeant Bennie S. Frick Memorial Educational Award. Eligibility to apply for this Award, applicants must be a dependent son or daughter of a Chapter One, ANG NCOAGA member in good standing and having been in good standing at time of death if sponsor is deceased. Awards are made payable jointly to recipient and educational institution in which the student is enrolled or plans to enroll. The recipient of an award may receive an award in subsequent years; however, reapplication must be made for renewal of the award on the same basis as first-time applicants. Minimum amount of award will be Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

Applicants need not be currently enrolled in school to compete for an award. Applicants who are currently enrolled in a post-secondary educational institution must submit a record of grades. A high school transcript is required for applicants recently in high school and high school graduates never having attended a post-secondary educational institution. Award of scholarship will be based on:

- a. Meeting requirements for entrance in the educational institution of applicants' choice.
- b. Demonstrated leadership in home, school, church and community activities.
- c. Demonstrated financial need in order to begin or continue a program of study.
- d. Educational life goals.

Awards are made to full-time attending or contemplating attendance at a college, university, business, trade or vocational school for the current academic year of application.

Each application will be accompanied by:

- a. Copy of institution transcript of courses and grades.
- b. Applicant's personal letter addressed to the Chairman, Scholarship Committee.

Applicant's personal letter will at a minimum specifically address:

- a. Financial need
- b. Educational and life goals for the period five (5) and ten (10) years from the date of this application.

At the option of the applicant, a photo (color) may be submitted. Photo will be returned.
